

2 Timothy 3:16-17 (ESV)

All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.

How to use:

This bible plan is designed to give you a chronological read through the Old Testament scriptures. This will put events together in order of when they happened, while not going to the extreme of having to flip pages after every few verses. It is designed to help us understand the timeline and bring different parts that speak to the same event together thus bringing clarity to the events. For example David's Psalms will be read after the event occurred during which he wrote the Psalm (i.e. 21-May: 1 Samuel 24; Ps 7, 27, 31).

Get the most out of reading your Bible:

1. Seek the Lord in prayer and worship before you begin reading

John 5:39-40 (ESV): You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life.

2. Approach the scripture as a conversation with Jesus, not a text book

Hebrews 4:12-13 (NKJV)

For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

3. Remember He wants to speak to you; trust the Holy Spirit to give revelation

1 Corinthians 2:10 (ESV)

these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.

4. Ask questions, have discussions, search for the Truth

Ephesians 5:17-21 (ESV)

Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.

5. Remember it is all about Jesus

Luke 24:27 (NKJV)

And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He [Jesus] expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.
